

Important Notice

- Discrete information relating to respective partner institutions in the Application Guidelines (faculties and fields in which courses can be taken, GPA and language requirements, etc.) will be updated if needed. For the latest information, please ensure to confirm the Application Guidelines by Partner Institution on the International Center website or the websites of the respective partner institutions. Persons who wish to apply are requested to submit their applications within the application period, including the required documentation, after carefully perusing this information.

Important Updates

- The English language proficiency requirements; A total score of 70 or above for TOEFL iBT or a total score of 5.5 or above for IELTS; and, fulfilment of the minimum criteria for language proficiency requirements stipulated by each partner institution at the time of application and internal selection.
Students need to meet the language proficiency requirement of their preferred programs at the time of application for the internal screening. Each language requirement stated on the Program List is a minimum requirement for application. Therefore, if students fail to meet the requirements (including specific section score requirements), they will be excluded from consideration for the internal screening.
- Students who are expecting to earn their degrees in English (e.g. PEARL or GIGA program) are allowed to complete the application in English.
For students that English is your first language (mother tongue), the submission of one of the following documents will be accepted instead of a TOEFL iBT or IELTS scores. However, keep in mind that you are required to submit all necessary documents by the internal application deadline even if you submit one of the following documents. In addition, if you are required to submit either TOEFL iBT or IELTS scores when submitting your application to the overseas university you plan to study at upon passing the internal screening, you must submit this document as requested.
- For students who studied in countries where English is the first language and where classes are given in English (including Ireland, the United Kingdom, Australia, Canada (excluding Quebec), New Zealand, and the United States of America, but not including countries where English is one of multiple official languages or where classes are given in English in a country where English is not the official language), documents that prove they were enrolled from junior high to high school for a total of five years or more in one or more of these countries (e.g., official English academic transcripts from the educational institutions that shows grades over the five or more years you were enrolled).
- International Baccalaureate final examination academic transcripts of Group 1 (Studies in language and literature) Courses in English (Language A: literature; Language A: language and literature; and Literature and Theater Studies).

*Be sure that the following documents will not be accepted; SAT (Scholastic Assessment Test) score report for the Critical Reading section, ACT(American College Test) student report.
