

Bader-Japan International Exchange Online Program 2023 – 2024

Intercultural Media Project

ベイダー国際交流オンライン・プログラム
ベイダー・カレッジ（イギリス）・クィーンズ大学（カナダ）

Intercultural Media Project

学生同士で行うインタビューを通じて異文化コミュニケーション力の向上を目指し、相互理解を深め、グローバルな視点を持ちながらコンテンツを制作するプログラムです。

This is a joint group project between students at the Bader College (UK campus of Queen's University, Canada) and Universities in Japan, to create series of creative media contents (video, podcast or blog) based on research. This academic year, the theme is 'Thinking Beyond Borders: Addressing Global Challenges through Intercultural Communication', exploring the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) No.4, 'Quality Education'.

This is an exciting opportunity for you to gain international experience and skills by collaborating with a diverse group of students who are studying in the UK.

The media contents created during previous years' exchange project can be seen on this website: <https://biscinterculturalp.wixsite.com/bader-college>

3. Session Dates

Commitment:

1 hour per week, Thursdays at 8-9pm (Japan time). The time will change to 9-10pm from 2nd November onwards (due to the change to Winter Time in the UK)

You will also be given a small task to complete on your own each week, which should not take more than 30 minutes.

Autumn Term:

12th October – 30th November (Except for: 26th October. There will be no sessions on this date)

Winter Term:

11th January – 15th February 2024

Platforms for communication:

- All sessions: via Zoom
- Group Collaboration: Microsoft Teams

Students in Japan will be invited as guest to the Bader College's Teams group. Each group will have their own private channel, where the collaborative work will be shared and developed. In the first few sessions, guidance will be given to students in Japan on how to use this platform.

4. Process

In small groups (approx. 4-6 students per group), each group will carry out weekly discussions, and develop a plan of research and content output together. Students will be encouraged to think about how the various targets as stated in SDG No.4 'Quality Education'* can be achieved by 2030, both within their local environment and on a global level.

For example, Target 4.5 states that:

By 2030, eliminate gender disparities in education and ensure equal access to all levels of education and vocational training for the vulnerable, including persons with disabilities, indigenous peoples and children in vulnerable situations.

Based on this target, students may pose questions such as:

- What is the current situation or issue in my community, University or country?
- What are some of the differences in this situation between Canada, UK and Japan?
- What can we do on a local and global level to inspire change?
- In what creative ways can we communicate our research to address these challenges?

*For the full list of targets listed in SDG No.4 'Quality Education', please see <https://sdgs.un.org/goals/goal4>

5. Learning Outcomes

By participating in this program, you will be able to gain skills in the following areas:

Academic Excellence

- Develop skills in research and critical thinking by engaging with multicultural perspectives
- Demonstrate effective communication skills in English by undertaking research within an international team, collecting resources and creating content for an audience.

Global Citizenship

- Develop confidence in collaboration on an international level
- Develop intercultural competence through working closely with students from diverse backgrounds, who are studying in different locations.

Self Development

- Demonstrate professionalism through the planning of meetings, content development and project management

Creativity

- Develop creativity through the creation of media contents, thinking about effective ways to tell your story and research

6. Application

Part 1: Application

By E-mail, include the following details in English:

1. Your Name
2. Year of study
3. Area/Subject of study
4. Why do you wish to participate in the program? (maximum 300 words)

*Before applying, please make sure that you are available for weekly sessions as stated in Section 3: Session Dates

E-mail your application to: Midori Komachi m.komachi@queensu.ca

*Please use your University email to send the application. Applications from personal email addresses will not be accepted.

Deadline of application: Wednesday 20th September 2023, 5pm (Japan time)

Part 2: Interview

Selected applicants will be contacted for a brief online interview in English. The interview will take place during 21st-28th September.

Selection of participants

Selection will be based on the applicant's communication ability, and most importantly, their ability to demonstrate their passion and willingness to engage in this project. Please note that previous international experience is not necessary.

7. Faculty

This project is led by...

Midori Komachi

Midori Komachi is an Adjunct Lecturer at Queen's University (Dan School of Drama and Music), and Japan Engagement Officer at Bader College.

As an international violinist, bilingual writer and composer, she has developed a diverse career in bridging different cultures through creative exchanges. She is a regular guest speaker and contributor on various media, including BBC, NHK, TV Tokyo and British Airways in-flight entertainment.
