Applicability of Terms and Conditions

Article 1

In reference to the article 5 of Keio University Rules for Student Housing, these terms and conditions shall be specified for matters concerning the use of the dormitories arranged by Keio University (hereafter "the University") for international students. In the case of any matter arising that is not provided for by these terms and conditions, such matter shall be resolved through consultation in good faith and in accordance with laws and regulations or generally established conventions.

Residents

Article 2

- (1) Persons who have been allocated accommodation at a dormitory shall be considered Residents after the announcement of the allocation.
- (2) If a Resident wishes to cancel their stay at the dormitory after having been assigned a room, the Resident must inform the University by the designated date. If the Resident cancels their stay at the dormitory after the designated date, the Resident must pay a cancellation fee of 50,000 yen to the University unless the University has granted a special exemption.
- (3) Residency may be cancelled if it is found that the Resident has falsified any details in the relevant documentation.

Period of Residence

Article 3

- (1) The period of residence shall be limited to one academic year, and in principle this period may not be extended. However, this limit shall not apply in the case that any of the below clauses from (2) through (4) apply.
- (2) If a student will enter a dormitory as a Resident Assistant or will be appointed as a Resident Assistant.
- (3) If an extension of their enrollment period following completion of the single academic year of courses on the Japanese Language Program (JLP) is authorized, a Resident may be permitted to extend their period of residence within the same period of their enrollment in the JLP.
- (4) If an international student entering Shonan Fujisawa International Dormitory and H Village is enrolled in a degree program at a faculty or graduate school of the University as a full-time student their permitted period of residence will be the same as the standard duration of their academic program.
- (5) If a Resident wishes to extend their period of stay, an application for an extension must be submitted within the designated period and permission to extend the period of stay must be obtained. The University will decide whether or not to permit an extension after comprehensively considering the occupancy status and schedule of the dormitory in question.

Procedure to Move In

Article 4

- (1) The Resident will choose from the periods designated by the University for moving in to the accommodation. The scheduled moving in times will exclude the Year-end and New Year's holidays, weekends, and public holidays, with check-in times set at weekdays between the hours of 9 am and 6 pm.
- (2) The Resident will be obliged to report (register) their intended date of moving in and the check-in time to the appropriate office via the designated form online as soon as these are finalized.
- (3) The Resident will be obliged to report immediately to the appropriate office if there is a change to their previously reported (registered) intended date of moving in.
- (4) If the Resident has reported a change to their previously reported (registered) intended date of moving in to the appropriate office by ten days in advance of their original intended date of moving in, the rent for the Resident will be calculated as starting from the new intended date of moving in following the change.
- (5) In case of any changes other than those indicated in the previous clause, the rent for the Resident will be calculated as starting from the intended date of moving in before the change.
- (6) If the Resident will move in on an earlier date to the previously reported (registered) intended date of moving in, the rent will be calculated as starting from the actual day on which they move in.
- (7) The Resident will in principle confirm the conditions of the accommodation with the Resident Manager when moving in, with an inventory of the conditions of the accommodation about which both the Resident Manager and Resident agree to be drafted, and with both parties then affixing their signatures to this document.

Rent

Article 5

- (1) The amount of rent is as specified in Appendix 1 as the "Resident's Subsidized Rent."
- (2) The amount of rent may be subject to change as required. In the case that the amount of rent is to be altered, the Resident shall be notified at least three months in advance of the month in which the change is to occur.
- (3) The Resident must pay rent on the prescribed day of each month by the method designated by each dormitory.
- (4) In the case that the Resident's period of residence is less than one full month, rent for one month shall be charged. In the case that the period of residence exceeds one month and the moving in day or moving out day is part-way through a month, the rent for the moving in month/moving out month shall be calculated using the "Rent by Daily Rate" as specified in Appendix 2.
- (5) If a Resident fails to pay 2 months' rent or more, their stay will be cancelled, and they will be required to move out immediately.

- (6) In principle, once rent has been paid it shall not be refunded.

Cleaning and Maintenance Fee

Article 6

- (1) The Resident must pay a Cleaning and Maintenance Fee by the university-designated method within the prescribed payment period.
- (2) The Resident may have their residency cancelled if they neglect to complete the procedures in the previous clause without a special reason.

Resident's Responsibility for Other Expenses

Article 7

The Resident's responsibility for other expenses shall be as follows:

- (1) Utilities expenses for the Resident's accommodation, and meal expenses, as specified in Appendix 3.
- (2) Sundry expenses related to daily life at the Resident's accommodation
- (3) Replacement or repair expenses resulting from loss of, or damage to, equipment and fixtures in the Resident's accommodation
- (4) Any other replacement or repair expenses in the case of damage to, or faults occurring in, the dormitory's facilities, equipment, or fixtures as a result of the Resident's intentional or accidental actions

Moving Out

Article 8

- (1) A Resident must register a move-out date through the method instructed by the university at least one month in advance of their proposed move-out date.
- (2) If a Resident has registered a move-out date at least 1 month before the move-out date and the move-out date specified by the Resident falls in the middle of the month, rent for the final month of stay will be calculated using a daily rate based on 1–3 in Appendix 2.
- (3) If the Resident fails to register a move-out date one month before the day of leaving the dormitory, the Resident must pay for one month's rent calculated from the date the move-out date is registered, before leaving the dormitory.
- (4) Moving out days will be on weekdays, and exclude the Year-end and New Year's holidays, weekends, and public holidays. The time of moving out shall be during the Resident Manager's office hours.
- (5) In principle, an accommodation check will be conducted when moving out by the Resident Manager against the inventory of conditions of the accommodation drafted on the moving in day. In the case of problems or damage other than those resulting from normal wear and tear, the Resident must pay any replacement or repair expenses.

Prohibited Activities

Article 9

The Resident must not engage in any of the following conduct.

- (1) Modification of, or addition to, the basic facilities at the dormitory
- (2) Use or concurrent use of the accommodation for any purpose other than as a place of residence
- (3) Subleasing of the accommodation to a third party
- (4) Bringing in of dangerous items to the dormitory or accommodation
- (5) Causing disturbances or nuisance, such as through excessive noise, to people in the area neighboring the accommodation, or keeping of animals of any type at the accommodation

Compulsory Moving Out

Article 10

The University may order a Resident to which any of the following situations apply to move out:

- (1) When deemed to have breached the University Regulations or these Terms and Conditions, disrupted the peace and order of the dormitory, or engaged in behavior inappropriate of a Resident
- (2) When no longer a student at the University
- (3) When residency at the dormitory with others is deemed inappropriate on the grounds of health considerations.
- (4) When the rent for two or more months has not been paid
- (5) When residency at the dormitory is deemed inappropriate for any other reason

Compensation for Damage

Article 11

In the case of the Resident or a guest of the Resident causing damage to the dormitory, either intentionally or accidentally, the Resident must immediately notify the appropriate office, and compensate for the damage. In addition, in the case of the Resident or a guest of the Resident causing a person living in the area neighboring the accommodation, or any other third party connected to the accommodation, to incur damages, the Resident must compensate for the damage.

Provision of Personal Information

Article 12

In some cases, the University may deem it necessary to disclose personal information at the request of the Resident Manager or person of equivalent standing for the purpose of smooth and safe management and maintenance of matters pertaining to the lives of people connected to the dormitory and the University.

Accommodation for Non-Residents

Article 13

It is forbidden for non-residents to stay at the dormitory. However, exceptions may be made in emergencies or in the case of a guest room being used.

Observance of the Accommodation's Regulations of Use

Article 14

In the case that regulations of use specific to a particular dormitory are stipulated in addition to these regulations, the Resident must strictly obey the specified regulations.

Amendment and Abolishment of the Terms and Conditions

Article 15

These terms and conditions will be amended and abolished in consultation with the Director of the International Center and the Dean of Student Affairs.

Supplementary Provisions (December 22, 2023)

These terms and conditions shall come into effect on April 1, 2024. Furthermore, the rent stipulated in Appendix 1 (H Village) will apply to Residents for the rent payable from March 2024.
