

Internal Procedures for Application for Tokyo International Exchange Center (TIEC)

In order to apply for residence at TIEC, you must be recommended by Keio University. Please check TIEC's website and the following internal procedures before submitting your application documents to the university by the internal deadline.

Internal Application Procedures for International researchers

1. Necessary documents and how to submit

Make an inquiry to the Keio Housing Coordinator at keio_dormitory@info.keio.ac.jp.

2. Application schedule

Internal Deadlines: There is an internal deadline or two each month. See “Internal Deadlines.”

Internal Screening: Keio will screen the documents and conduct an interview if necessary.

The Housing Coordinator will submit the applications to TIEC by its deadline on behalf of the applicants recommended by the university.

3. Notes

- * The desired period of residence is up to one year (renewable annually).
- * If the final month of the desired period of residence is March, August, or September, you may not write dates between 26 and 31 on the final day. (e.g., ○March 20, ×March 27)
- * While the TIEC Application Guidelines list two application deadlines per month, the Keio internal deadlines are only once a month (except for the months of February, July, and August when Keio has two deadlines).
